The Boulder City Damboree Committee is proud to announce that they will be offering reserved space to political campaigns at the 2010 Damboree Celebration in Boulder City. This year's event will be held on two days, Saturday, July 3rd at Broadbent Memorial Park and Sunday, July 4th at Veterans' Memorial Park. Reserved space is 10'x10' at both parks for a fee of $500 per park.

At Broadbent Memorial Park, reserved space is located in the upper section of the park between the flagpole and the announcer's stand with approximately 5,000-8,000 people at this location. At Veterans' Memorial Park, the reserved space is on Pratte Soccer Fields with approximately 8,000-10,000 people at this location. Banners are welcome and must be placed in a manner that does not block other candidates' booths. Shade canopies are not to be secured by stakes in the ground. Above ground weights recommended include buckets, cinder blocks, etc. Neither water or electricity are available at the reserved site locations.

~Rental items available: 10'x10' shade canopies, 6' tables and metal folding chairs. (See application for details)

~ Give away items are welcome, please do not give out food items as this competes with our vendors, this includes water. Daytime items recommended are t-shirts, water-soaked neck ties, fans, mister bottles or any other item to help people cool off. As for the evening venue at Veterans' Memorial Park on Sunday evening here the fireworks take place, there is a splash park so any type of water toy would be well received. Once the evening hour sets in, any type of light-up item or 3D glasses to watch the fireworks should be a big hit.

~ONLY positive campaign literature, signage, t-shirts give-aways, etc. are allowed. Negative statements against issues or candidates will not be allowed.

In addition to reserved park space, providing you submit your Parade Application along with your Political Reserved Space Application documents together, your campaign will be acknowledged as an event sponsor by our parade announcers as your entry passes our announcer booths.

The comment below from Boulder City resident Laura "Godbey" Smith inspired us to make room for as many political candidates as possible."

"I enjoy the enthusiasm of elected officials from city to national offices who come to Boulder City for this special function to meet, visit and share ideas with the citizens of our community, together celebrating the birth of our nation."

Please be advised, space is limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis. You will be notified that space is available within three working days after receiving your application. Please respond by mail, the Political Reserved Space Application and/or Parade Application along with your payment made payable to the Damboree Committee to:
